

East 9th Avenue Denver

This visioning exercise involved re-tasking a 1960's era property with a new character reflecting the energy and vitality of an emerging commercial district. Design options were developed exploring a diversity of materials and color in response to the clients' appreciation of the Bauhaus school and the lines of the existing structure.

Current
building
elevations

Client
Old Vine Property Group

Location
Denver, Colorado

